Gen. Frank P. Blair's Views.
Before the meeting of the Convention in New York, Gen. Blair wrote to a friend, and published the following exposition of his views, which are frank and explicit enough, it must be acknowledged, even by those who disapprove of them:

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States, so long excluded, will have been admitted; negro suffrage established; and the carpet-baggers installed in their seats in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive who is sworn to maintain the Constitution, and who will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces, or permits others to enforce, these Reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.

There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State Governments, allow the white people to reorganize their own governments, and elect Senators and Representatives. The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the white people of the South, and with the co-operation of the President it will not be difficult to compel the Senate to submit once more to the obligations of the constitution. It will be able to withstand the public judgment, if distinctly invoked and clearly expressed on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all future strife to put the issue plainly to the country.

I repeat that this is the real and only question which we should allow to control us: Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Government has been overthrown; or shall we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration? It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith, and the public credit. What can a Democratic President do in regard to any of these, with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet-baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs—by which an army is maintained to protect these vagabonds in their outrages upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenues and resources of the Government and destroy its credit—make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the constitution before we can restore the finances, and to do this we must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into dust the usurpations of Congress, known as the reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the convention upon this issue, but it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor or value to the struggle. Your friend,
FRANK P. BLAIR.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Ten days ago Patrick Hughes, a baker, employed at Willard's Hotel, came to his death, as was supposed at the time, by a fall from a window in the fifth story of the building, while he was asleep. There was at the time no suspicion of foul play, but a day or two afterwards it was charged that Dennis O'Hare, a fellow-workman, had made threats against the deceased. An inquiry developed the fact that O'Hare had made some conflicting statements relative to himself and the deceased, which led to his arrest upon his return from Baltimore, where he had been for a week. On Saturday, he had a hearing. The evidence was all circumstantial, but was thought to be of sufficient importance to justify detention. It was shown that O'Hare was about the hotel at a late hour the night Hughes was killed, although he had given out during the afternoon that he was going to Baltimore, and had sent his trunk to the depot.

Frederick Williams, a bricklayer, fell dead on Saturday, whilst walking along Thirteenth st. A coroner's verdict was rendered that deceased came to his death by a rush of blood to the head caused by exposure and excessive use of intoxicating liquor.

WARM SPRINGS, BATH COUNTY, VA.
CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.
Having recently assumed the proprietorship of this old and fashionable watering place, and completed our arrangements for the entertainment of visitors, we now solicit the patronage of the public. Every effort has been made to restore to this establishment its former reputation. The remedial properties of the waters have been sufficiently attested in the numbers who have been relieved of Rheumatic, Gouty and other affections, while the luxury of the Baths, when once enjoyed, can never be forgotten. Persons desirous to receive full information concerning the character of the waters may consult our circular, which will be sent to them, on application, free of postage.
We pledge ourselves that our table shall not be inferior to any kept either in city or country. The name of our manager is sufficient to insure good living.
The route to the Warm Springs is by Richmond and Staunton to Millboro' depot, on the Virginia Central railroad, where a line of stages connects with the trains, enabling passengers to reach the Springs the same day after leaving Richmond, Lynchburg, Washington, or Baltimore.
RATES OF BOARD: Per day, $2.50; per week, $15; per month (four weeks) $50.

JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Affectation of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Langour, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dizziness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels, or any other Disorders arising from Solitary Practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Sirens, to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN,
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which actually swears to an ultimately grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of imprudence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged,
